FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Air Force officials receive closure letter for environmental restoration site

Dyess Air Force Base, Texas – On Nov. 1, 2012, the Texas Commission on Environmental Quality issued a closure letter for the environmental restoration of the site of a 1958 B-47 plane crash located 4.5 miles southwest of the Dyess flightline.

Copies of reports by Sullivan-Arrowhead Federal Services and the Air Force Safety Center, Weapons Safety Division and the Air Force School of Aerospace Medicine containing details of the site's restoration can be found using the featured links tab on the Dyess website at www.dyess.af.mil.

The reports are also available on the third floor of the Hardin-Simmons University Richards Library located at 2200 Hickory Street in Abilene and can be accessed for the next six months.

For more information, please call the 7th Bomb Wing Public Affairs office at (325) 696-2863.
