

Dyess Air Force Base

Dyess Air Force Base exists to deliver rapid, decisive and sustainable air power to combat commanders anytime and anywhere it is needed with the B-1 Lancer. Dyess is the home of the first operational B-1 Bomber and is the training center for all B-1 aircrews. We are also the home of two squadrons of C-130J aircraft, which provide worldwide airlift support, including the delivery of critical humanitarian aid.

The analysis details the economic benefits of Dyess AFB to the Abilene community. However, our relationship with the Big Country extends beyond economics. As a team, we enjoy a long standing and rich history of mutual respect and support. The spirit of cooperation between Abilenians and their civic leaders has fostered an interest in the welfare of the Dyess family ever since the gates first opened in 1951. The excellent community relations are evidenced in activities such as “The World’s Largest Barbecue” for Dyess personnel and their families and the Veterans Day parade sponsored by the citizens of Abilene. Big Country residents have an interest in the military presence which is reflected in the wide participation in the Dyess Open House. Numerous local business associates share their business expertise and experience with the military community and serve as Honorary Squadron Commanders. Dyess personnel return their generosity by volunteering their time and services to many local charities and civic groups. In addition to the appropriated monies spent, Dyess personnel contributed over $118,396 to the Combined Federal Campaign.
